

Quarterly List of Programming Providing the Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues

Covering the period beginning January 1, 2016
Ending March 31, 2016

WGTA-TV, Toccoa, Georgia

Station WGTA is a commercial broadcasting television station in its service area. Currently, the station does not offer local programming or local news, but does provide 24/7 family-oriented programs. Examples of significant programming dealing with current community issues during the quarter are set forth below.

Quarterly List of Programming Providing the Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues 1st QUARTER 2016

Description of Certain Local and Network Programs which address various needs and issues

1. There is a need for family-friendly programming.
All the programming is suitable for viewing by all ages.
2. Teenagers about to enter into the workforce need to develop certain skills to prepare them for their chosen occupation.
Workforce, Sundays 10 – 11 am educates teenagers about the requirements and skills necessary for various occupations.
3. The community has health concerns about the physical and psychological effects of obesity.

A PSA was published on the station's website, concerning help for those who are chronic food overeaters (FA).

4. Much food is wasted in the United States and in the community. A PSA was published on the station's website, concerning ways to reduce the waste.